

Provider application requirements

- A business registration in good standing with the Colorado Secretary of State
- Contact information requiring an individual's name and business email address
- Review RULONA and the rules
- Review Colorado Remote Notary Provider Protocols
- Respond to required technology questions
- Must certify the provider and the provider's system complies with the law and rules