Guidelines for Notary Complaints

Dear Constituent:

Thank you for contacting the Colorado Secretary of State's Notary Public Program. The Secretary of State has jurisdiction to investigate possible violations of the Colorado Revised Uniform Law on Notarial Acts (RULONA). If a violation occurred, it may result either in a letter of admonition or in disciplinary action against the notary, up to and including a notary revocation hearing.

This memo provides some guidelines regarding the complaint-handling process. These guidelines are meant to help you understand what we will be doing with your complaint.

- 1. We do not represent you. Any action that we take is on behalf of the state and citizens in general. By accepting your complaint, we have not agreed to represent you in any capacity.
- 2. Our jurisdiction is limited to violations of RULONA. Our investigations are not designed to provide individual remedies. In addition, we do not have jurisdiction to decide whether a notarized document is valid for a particular purpose, to invalidate documents, or to take any other actions with regard to the documents themselves. If you have concerns about civil or criminal questions related to an improperly-notarized document, you should seek your own legal counsel.
- 3. How you can help us to evaluate your complaint: In order to help us accurately evaluate your complaint, include copies of all relevant documents with your complaint form. Don't send original documents; keep the originals for your own records.

If your documents contain confidential information, such as social security numbers, bank numbers, or similar items, redact those numbers from the copies of the documents before submitting them.

4. What we might ask you to do: In order to fully investigate your claims, we will need your full cooperation. We may ask you to provide us with additional information in writing or in an interview. In addition, while the great majority of complaints are resolved without a hearing, you might be asked to be a witness. If you are unable or unwilling to testify about your complaint, please let us know.

This office can't provide legal advice to you. To preserve any legal rights you may have, you may wish to seek a private attorney.

Thank you for your time, and we appreciate your bringing this situation to our attention.
