Andrea,

I am a resident of Colorado and a registered voter. I want to express my opposition to any campaign finance laws. They are a violation of our first amendment and free speech rights and should be repealed entirely. I do understand that, as currently written, the state's constitution requires some of these rules but we absolutely must make them as minimally invasive as possible. We want active engagement on the contentious issues of the day and should remove the burden on citizens groups who advocate for or against any particular ballot measure.
