Hello:

You have sent 125 pages of highly nebulous material. The really important factor in elections are illegal aliens/immigrants who are being given voter privileges in sanctuary cities like Denver and Aurora. Primarily, the authors of this travesty are from the Democratic Party, in my opinion, as the liberal, or "progressive", mindset is to stack the deck against the Republican Party. It's nothing more than cheating and, according to that liberal mindset, the means justify the ends. The only way to counter voter fraud is to stop Political Correctness and go with what common sense tells us, for years: to vote, one must have a valid driver's license or official state ID. Forget the utility bill and other ridiculous forms of ID. Keep it plain and simple and there will be no accusations of voter fraud against Democrats, Republicans or any other party. Stacking the deck, illegally, like it has been, will only put a stain on legal immigrants/aliens with an unfair brush and put suspicion on all elections. It is not racist to require all voters to produce valid registration and ID's in every election.
