My name is JEANIE A. ENOCH, ID# 20074024387. My commission expires 7/11/2019.

I think that these amendments to the Notary Law should have been put in a long time ago.

Some notaries I have talked to expressed a wish to take a course to better understand what they are doing. The new notaries should be required to take and pass an exam before being certified.

I agree that every notary's firm or employer in possession of a notary journal has the same responsibility as a notary concerning that journal. In the wrong hands, it could be damaging.

Please accept my comments concerning these laws and how they should be used.

Thank you for allowing me to participate.
