Dear Secretary Williams,

Thank you for taking time to improve the campaign finance rules in Colorado. The scenes from the latest political drama in Washington D.C. make it evident:

SOMETHING NEEDS TO BE DONE! I would have a law that requires ALL donations be pooled into one fund and have it managed by a non-corrupt and honest office in government. This office would then disburse the money evenly among all candidates. The playing field has got to be fair. What we have now is the ability for individuals and groups to buy a candidate. Once elected, the candidate merely does what his "employer" asks - even if its wrong, dishonest, and doesn't serve our country well. Divided we stand - unite we fall. We are falling fast. Your measures to clean up campaign finances are a start to a healthier political culture.

Thank you,
Jan Giovino
